

Bring Your 'A' Game Middle School Summer Camp

The Private Industry Council of Westmoreland/Fayette, Inc. (PIC) is excited to once again hold "Bring Your 'A' Game" Summer Camps for middle school students at least 12 years old and have completed 5th grade. Four camps are being planned in Westmoreland and Fayette Counties, two in Westmoreland and two in Fayette.

The camps run for 8 days from 10:00 am-4pm and will serve lunch. Forty (40) campers will learn about the high priority occupations in the region, participate in a field trip to the local career and technology center, and earn a certificate of work ethic. Students can also earn up to $200.00 for perfect attendance. The dates and locations of the camps are:

In Fayette County -

Brownsville Library in Brownsville - June 13th through June 16th and June 21st through June 24th

Fay Penn in Lemont Furnace – June 21st through June 24th and June 27th through June 30th.

In Westmoreland County –

Salvation Army in New Kensington – July 5th through July 8th and July 11th through July 14th.

Mosaic Church in Jeannette – July 11th through July 14th and July 18th through July 21st.

Shannon Singosky, Director of Economic and Workforce Development for the Private Industry Council says, "It is not too early to introduce kids to career options, the path to those careers, and what employers are looking for in their workforce." Employers from all over the region visit the camp to present what to expect from various careers including health care, transportation, and the trades.

Shujuane Martin, CEO/President of PIC said "Thanks to the Westmoreland-Fayette Workforce Investment Board for refunding this program. This camp was a huge success last summer and we are excited to do it again."

For details on the program and to sign up to participate, contact Shannon Singosky, Director of Economic and Workforce Development at 724-836-2600 ext. 222 or check out the website at www.privateindustrycouncil.com.
